Dear Associate

The only parties relevant for these proposed orders are:

1. The plaintiff, Mio Art Pty Ltd, represented by Delta Law;

2. The first and fourth defendants, BMD Holdings Pty Ltd and Mango Boulevard Pty Ltd, represented by Carter Newell; and

3. The third defendant, Mr Whitton.

Ms Perovich is also a party but she is not a party who is delivering a pleading for the purposes of these orders.

However, we ask all parties, identified above, to confirm their agreement to the orders, including Ms Perovich.

Yours faithfully

Subject: RE: WHITTON AND ORS ats MIO Art Pty Ltd and Anor - BS1714/11

Good afternoon,

Please be advised that his Honour has no objection to the proposed order, provided that the parties agree to it being made.

I note however that not all parties in the matter appear to be copied to this email. Could you please confirm that the parties consent to the proposed orders and confirm that the active parties are copied?

Kind regards

Dear Associate,

The plaintiff and the third defendant seek additional time to file – for the third defendant, his counterclaim and for the plaintiff, its amended statement of claim. Consequential changes have also been made to accommodate these variations. There is no opposition to these variations and the plaintiff and third defendant have agreed to accommodate the first and fourth defendants' request for further time for their defences.

However, as the last date for delivery of the reply's is beyond the date of the listing, the parties seek a revised review date late in the week commencing of 22 October 2018.

On this basis, please tell us if His Honour will grant the variations to the order as set out the attached marked up order and tell us if His Honour will agree to a revised review date.

Yours faithfully
